Jim Pickleseimer Wins Bowsher Memorial Trophy

An 18-year-old lad, described by his teachers at Williamsport's Wednesday that young Pickle-Deercreek high school as a 'model student," has been voted the most outstanding athlete of Pickaway County's 11 high

The vote entitles him to the Bob Bowsher Memorial Trophy, an annual award to be made in memory of another outstanding young man, Bob Bowsher of Circleville, who was killed in action in World War II.

The Williamsport youth is James Pickleseimer.

The award was based on a voting plan originated by the 11 Offset Soviets coaches in the Pickaway County school system. The coaches voted for 10 men-10 points for the top man, nine for the second most outstanding, eight for the third and so on down the line to the tenth man who receives one

11-Member Panel To Lack Veto

WASHINGTON, March 3-Sen. Ball (R) Minn., supported by a group of GOP senators, today proposed creation of a new international agency outside of the United Nations to combat Communist aggression. The proposal is designed to the UN Security Council and will be offered as part of the European Recovery Program. Ball declared:

"Unless the security problem of the Marshall Plan nations is solved, chances for success of ERP are not very bright."

Ball said the amendment provides for a declaration by Congress that the achievement of European stability requires the establishment of an international agency "capable of defending all member nations and peoples against aggression or subversion.

A SUPREME council, consisting of the 11 members of the Security Council, would be created to direct the agency. A single power veto would be circumvented, however, by permitting decisions to be made by the affirmative vote of seven mem-

Signatories of the pact would put their "armed forces and resupreme council "whenever the council decides that the use of such forces and resources is necessary to maintain peace or pendence of any or all signatories against aggression or subversion in any form." A draft of the proposal was made public following a meeting of several Republican senators last night. Other amendments the GOP group will offer to ERP include a proposal to limit American aid funds for recovery purposes to specific European projects to increase production of food, fuel, transport facilities, and steel. The Republican senatorial group decided to defer a deposed for a reduction in the $5.3 ed by the Senate foreign relations committee.

South Set To Stall OK Of Legislation

WASHINGTON, March 3-A leader of the 76-member bloc of protesting Southern House Democrats warned today that "every possible legislative device" will be employed to prevent passage of the anti-lynching bill, asked by President

Rep. Harris (D) Ark, secretary of the group which formed to oppose the President's civil rights program, said the Southern congressmen will launch a program immediately to impede progress of the anti-lynching measure. The bill was given committee approval Tuesday. Harris commented:

"We're in agreement that the longer we can postpone House action, the better fight we can make in the Senate.'

He said that a general meeting will be called shortly to coordinate the fight in the House.

THE 12-MEMBER executive committee of the Southern group mapped general strategy against the bill at a lockeddoor session. Rep. Colmer (D) Miss., chairman, reported that the campaign against the measure was the major item under discussion.

printed in the newspapers and voiced on the radio, voters in the middle west and far west still have only a hazy picture of the purposes and aims of the Marshall Plan.

Secretary of State George C. Marshall is known to feel that too much attention is being paid to what he calls "minutiae"—the minor details having small relation to the broad objectives of the program. Consequently, scores of top State department officials, representatives of the Committee for the Marshall Plan, headed by former Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson, and leading Republicans and Democrats whose views on foreign affairs are well known, will take the stump to "sell" the plan.

New Voice of America Irks Reds Into Reply

Special to Central Press WASHINGTON-Maj. Gen. Laurence Kuter, recently named to head the unified Military Air Transport Service, has touched off a new flurry on Capitol Hill.

President Truman appointed Kuter to head the nation's civil aeronautics setup, but the Senate armed forces committee refused to OK an arrangement under which the general would continue to draw military pay, and the appointment was withdrawn.

Kuter, who is serving as United States delegate to the International Commercial Aviation Organization, promptly was given the MATS top job. Members of a House military appropriations subcommittee have served notice that they will grill Air Force officials as to why Kuter and other general officers draw flight pay. Rep. Albert J. Engel (R), Michigan, the subcommittee chairman, asserts that flight pay was intended to compensate for "exceptional risk" but is now being drawn "by a pack of generals who simply stay up in the air for a required number of hours.'

Air Brass Flight Pay Draws Congressional Ire

New Voice of America Irks Reds Into Reply Special to Central Press WASHINGTON-Maj. Gen. Laurence Kuter, recently named to head the unified Military Air Transport Service, has touched off a new flurry on Capitol Hill. President Truman appointed Kuter to head the nation's civil aeronautics setup, but the Senate armed forces committee refused to OK an arrangement under which the general would continue to draw military pay, and the appointment was withdrawn, Kuter, who is serving as United States delegate to the International Commercial Aviation Organization, promptly was given the MATS top job. Members of a House military appropriations subcommittee have served notice that they will grill Air Force officials as to why Kuter and other general officers draw flight pay.

Rep. Albert J. Engel (R), Michigan, the subcommittee chairman, asserts that flight pay was intended to compensate for "exceptional risk" but is now being drawn "by a pack of generals who simply stay up in the air for a required number of hours."

Approximately $4,500 of Kuter's $15,000 annual salary is flight pay.

Mai. Gen • NEW VOICE OF AMERICA IRRITATES MOSCOW-Diplomatic officials believe the rejuvenated Voice of America broadcasts needled Russia into answering United States publication of Nazi-Soviet documents revealing the plans of those governments to divide up most of Europe, Africa and Asia in 1939.

The officials believe that the new Voice programs, carrying content of the documents, have begun to seep around the Iron Curtain to many Russians.

Moscow did nothing for two weeks after the revealing documents were published but the Voice kept hammering away 'round-the-clock -and finally came the Soviets' return blast.

The big campaign will come when Congress starts debating the State department planners think that even though much has been printed in the newspapers and voiced on the radio, voters in the middle west and far west still have only a hazy picture of the purposes and aims of the Marshall Plan. Secretary of State George C. Marshall is known to feel that too much attention is being paid to what he calls "minutiae"-the minor details having small relation to the broad objectives of the program. Consequently, scores of top State department officials, representatives of the Committee for the Marshall Plan, headed by former

Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson, and leading Republicans and Democrats whose views on foreign affairs are well known, will take the stump to "sell" the plan. Even Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, retired chief of staff and one of the most popular men in America, may be called on for a helping Soviet expansionism slid back to low speed in Finland today but few observers in Helsinki believed the Finns could hold out against the colossus although they may achieve a compromise.

This could take the form of a cultural and trade agreement avoiding any outright military "entanglement" for the present.

Such a move, of course, could not prevent the Soviets from carrying out military occupation of Finland whenever they so desired. In answer to this step, paper protests from Helsinki and elsewhere would be of little avail.

The slowdown in Helsinki is directly traceable to the fact that vast numbers of Finns are openly and solidly against anything more than a mere facade of friendly relations with

THE COMMUNISTS are powerful, of course, and they are bringing all possible pressure to bear upon the others. This could take the form of a cultural and trade agreement avoiding any outright military "entanglement" for the present.

Such a move, of course, could not prevent the Soviets from carrying out military occupation of Finland whenever they so desired. In answer to this step, paper protests from Helsinki and elsewhere would be of little

The slowdown in Helsinki is directly traceable to the fact that vast numbers of Finns are openly and solidly against anything more than a mere facade of friendly relations with Russia.

THE COMMUNISTS are powerful, of course, and they are bringing all possible pressure to bear upon the others. And while all realize that Soviet occupation would be an easy thing for Moscow to order and carry out, it would be against the wishes of so many thousands if not millions that unforeseen complications might develop.
